Chinese New Year 2019 Guide

Museums

Singapore Philatelic Museum
Chinese New Year Open House will be held on 6 February. Activities include musical performances, guided tours and crafts.

Displays and Exhibitions

Gardens by the Bay
Start of the Chinese New Year with a stroll through a Chinese garden at the “Dahlia Dreams” floral display in the Flower Dome. There will also be performances around Gardens by the Bay as part of “Spring Surprise”.

Shows and Performances

Huayi - Chinese Festival of Arts
Catch theatrical performances, musical acts along with family-friendly workshops and plays at Esplanade - Theatres on the Bay’s annual Chinese Festival of Arts.

It’s Badanamu Time!

River Hongbao
It is the Bicentennial Edition of the River Hongbao at The Float. Admire colourful lantern sets, be entertained by cultural performances and visit a special exhibition during this festive event in February 2019.

Outings and Experiences

Wild CNY
Celebrate Chinese New Year at Singapore’s wildlife parks where there will be festive fun including story walks, lion dance performances and special animal enrichments.

Lion Dance Performances
Want to know where to catch lion dance performances during Chinese New Year 2019? Locate a lion dance performance at this link here.

Chinatown CNY Celebrations
Pay a visit to Chinatown Singapore and soak in the festive atmosphere at the historic district. Enjoy the lanterns on display, go shopping at the Festive Bazaar and enjoy the sights in Chinatown.

Istana Open House
Pay a visit to the Istana on the second day of Chinese New Year to enjoy the expansive grounds and guided tours.
Where to Buy Chinese New Year Plants

Cheongsams & Mandarin-collared Shirts

Chinese New Year Decorations

Craft Ideas for Chinese New Year

How To Springclean Like a Pro

Chinese New Year Activity Sheets