How many of these items can you find?

- Ground Floor -

Rosetta Stone
196 BC

This stone has multiple languages inscribed on it. The discovery of the stone enabled Egyptian hieroglyphs to be deciphered.

Aztec Serpent
1400 - 1521

Created from over 2,000 pieces of turquoise attached to a wooden base. The two holes at the serpents' heads suggest it could have been worn on the chest. It was found in present-day Mexico.

Hoa Hakananai'a
1000 - 1200

This large ancestral stone sculpture or moai was made on Rapa Nui (also known as Easter Island). It was originally painted in red and white.

Sutton Hoo Helmet
Late 6th century to early 7th century
This ornate Anglo-Saxon helmet was found at a ship burial site. It is believed to have belonged to King Rædwald of East Anglia.

Lewis Chessmen
1150 - 1175

This chess piece is of a queen with her right hand on her cheek and left hand holding a horn. It is carved out of walrus ivory. The chessmen were discovered in a sand bank in Scotland in 1831.

Mummified Cat
30 BC

Animals that were considered sacred were mummified by the Ancient Egyptians. These included bulls, crocodiles, falcons and cats.
